

Hogan Lovells is a global legal practice providing high-quality service through 50 offices around the world.

With a deep commitment that has evolved as the firm has grown globally, Hogan Lovells has been a pioneer in the provision of pro bono legal services to those in need. We were the first firm – in 1969 – to establish a department devoted entirely to pro bono legal assistance. We also were the first firm to have an institutionalized pro bono commitment in Europe, the Middle East and Asia. We have established a policy of expecting all our staff worldwide to commit at least 25 hours each year to citizenship as part of normal work duties. In 2016 alone, our lawyers devoted 142,600 hours to pro bono matters.

Hogan Lovells opened in Italy in 2000 and now counts a team of more than 100 lawyers, working as one integrated team, in its Milan and Rome offices.
