

SURVEY – Partial results

The impact of ESG regulation on the Third Sector: lawyers, in-house counsels and non-profit organizations in comparison

51st Italian Pro Bono Roundtable
October 2nd, 2024, Rome

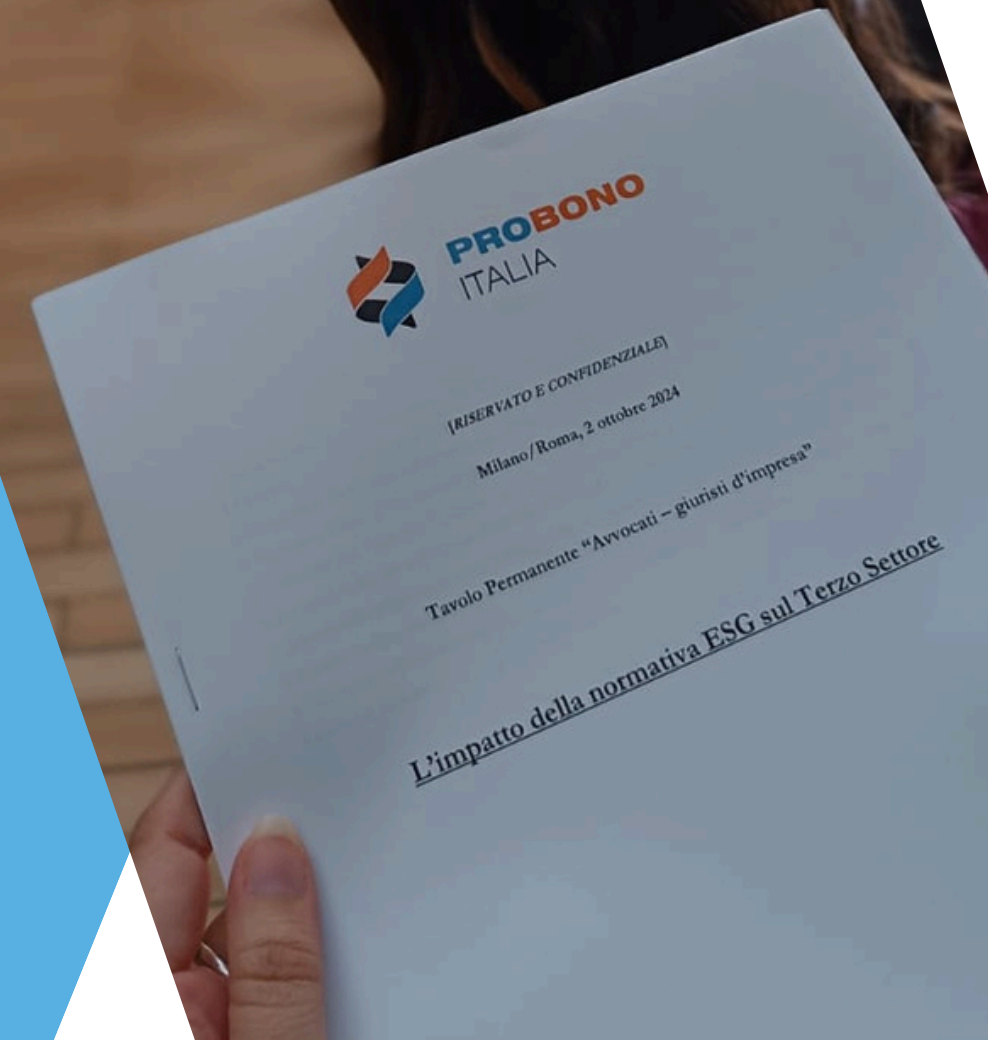

Introduction

During the 51st Italian Pro Bono Roundtable, we presented the paper titled "The Impact of ESG Regulations on the Third Sector."

The presentation emphasized how adopting monitoring, reporting, and evaluation processes related to progress on cohesion and sustainable development goals offers a valuable opportunity for non-profit organizations.

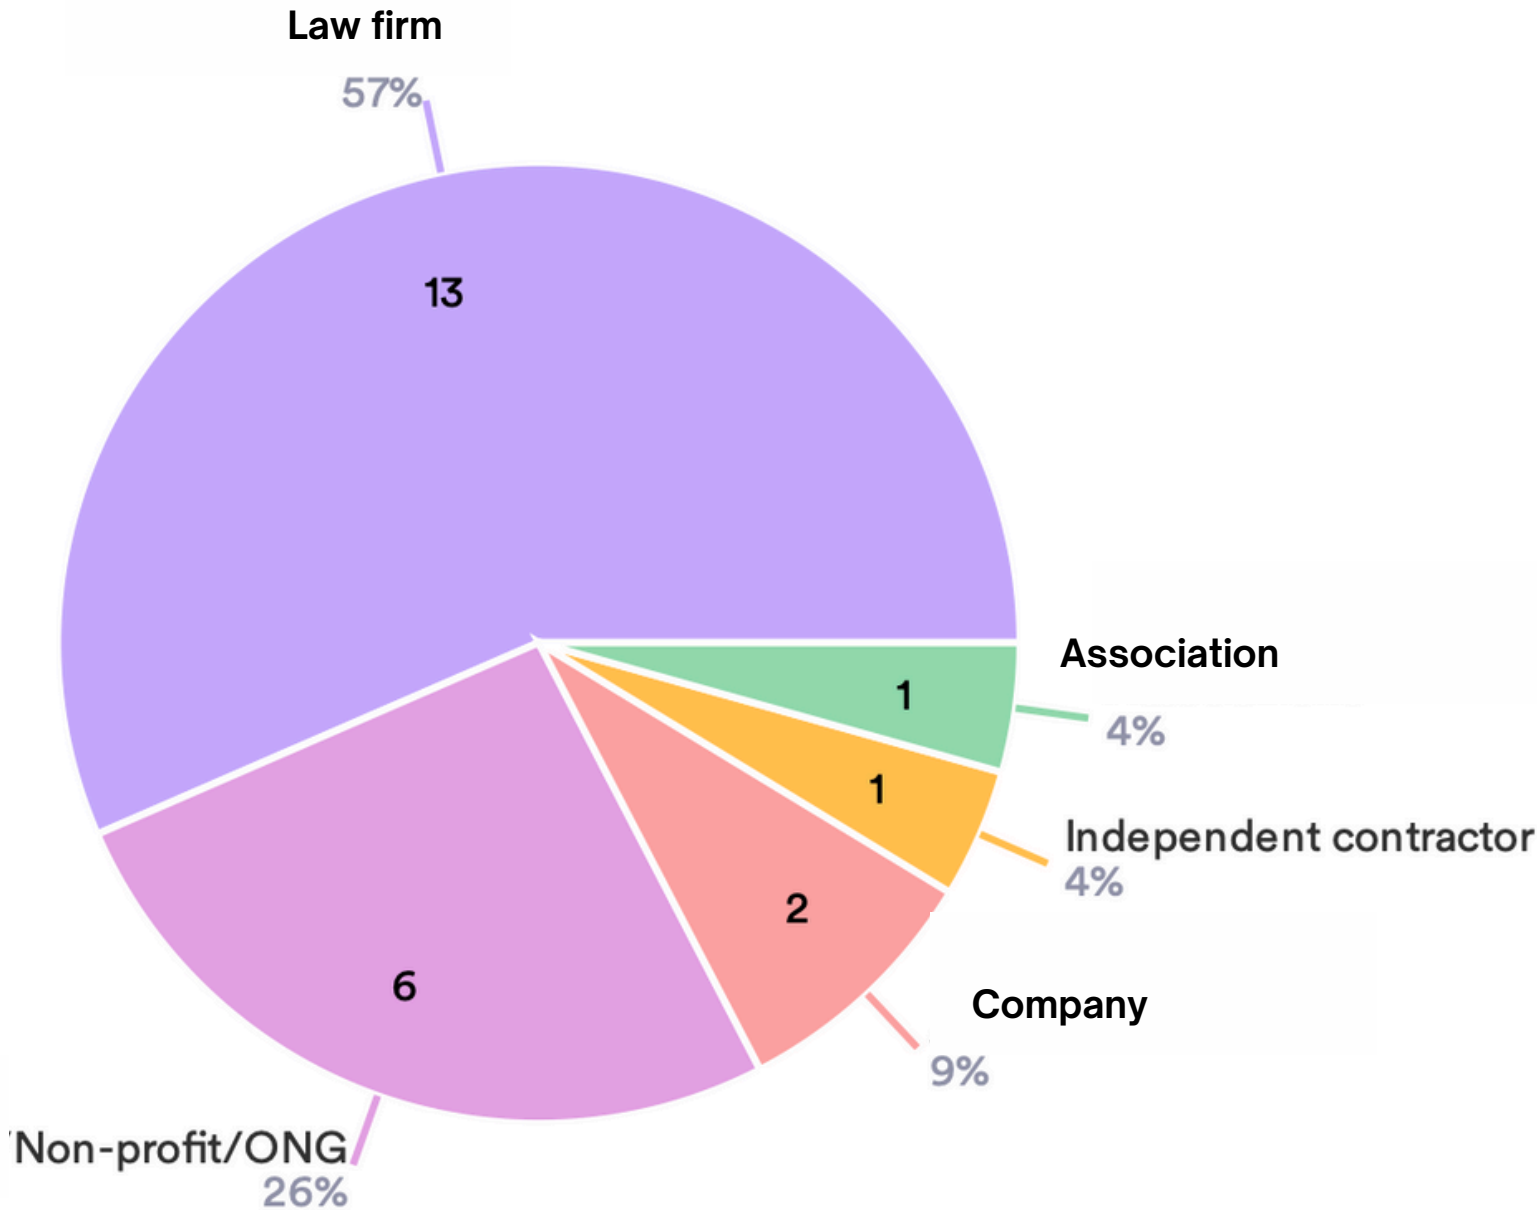

The presentation of the paper also served as an opportunity to launch the survey "The impact of ESG regulation on the Third Sector: lawyers, in-house counsels and non-profit organizations in comparison", engaging both in-person and remote participants.

In the next pages, you will find the questions along with the initial results.

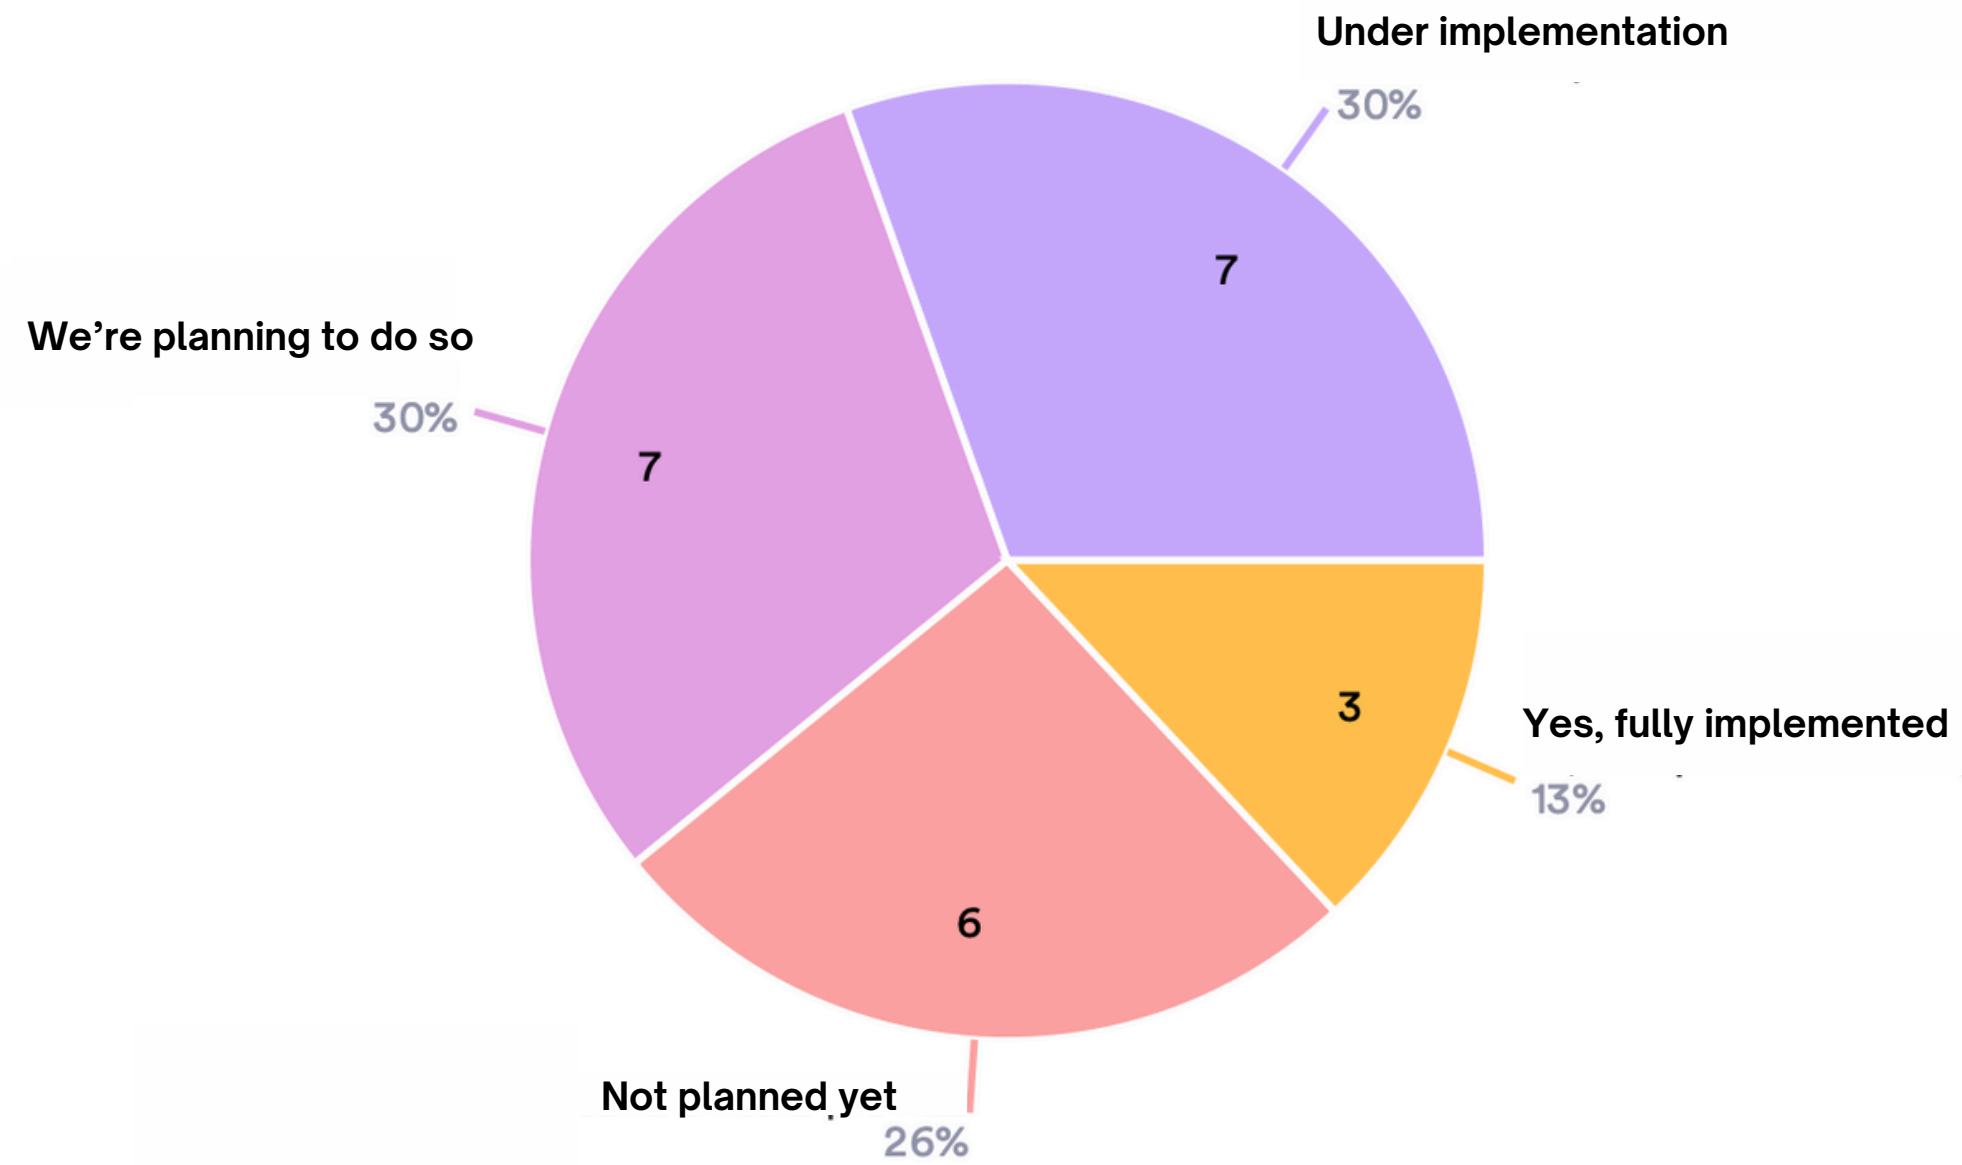

1) Which type does your organization belong to?

23 Responses

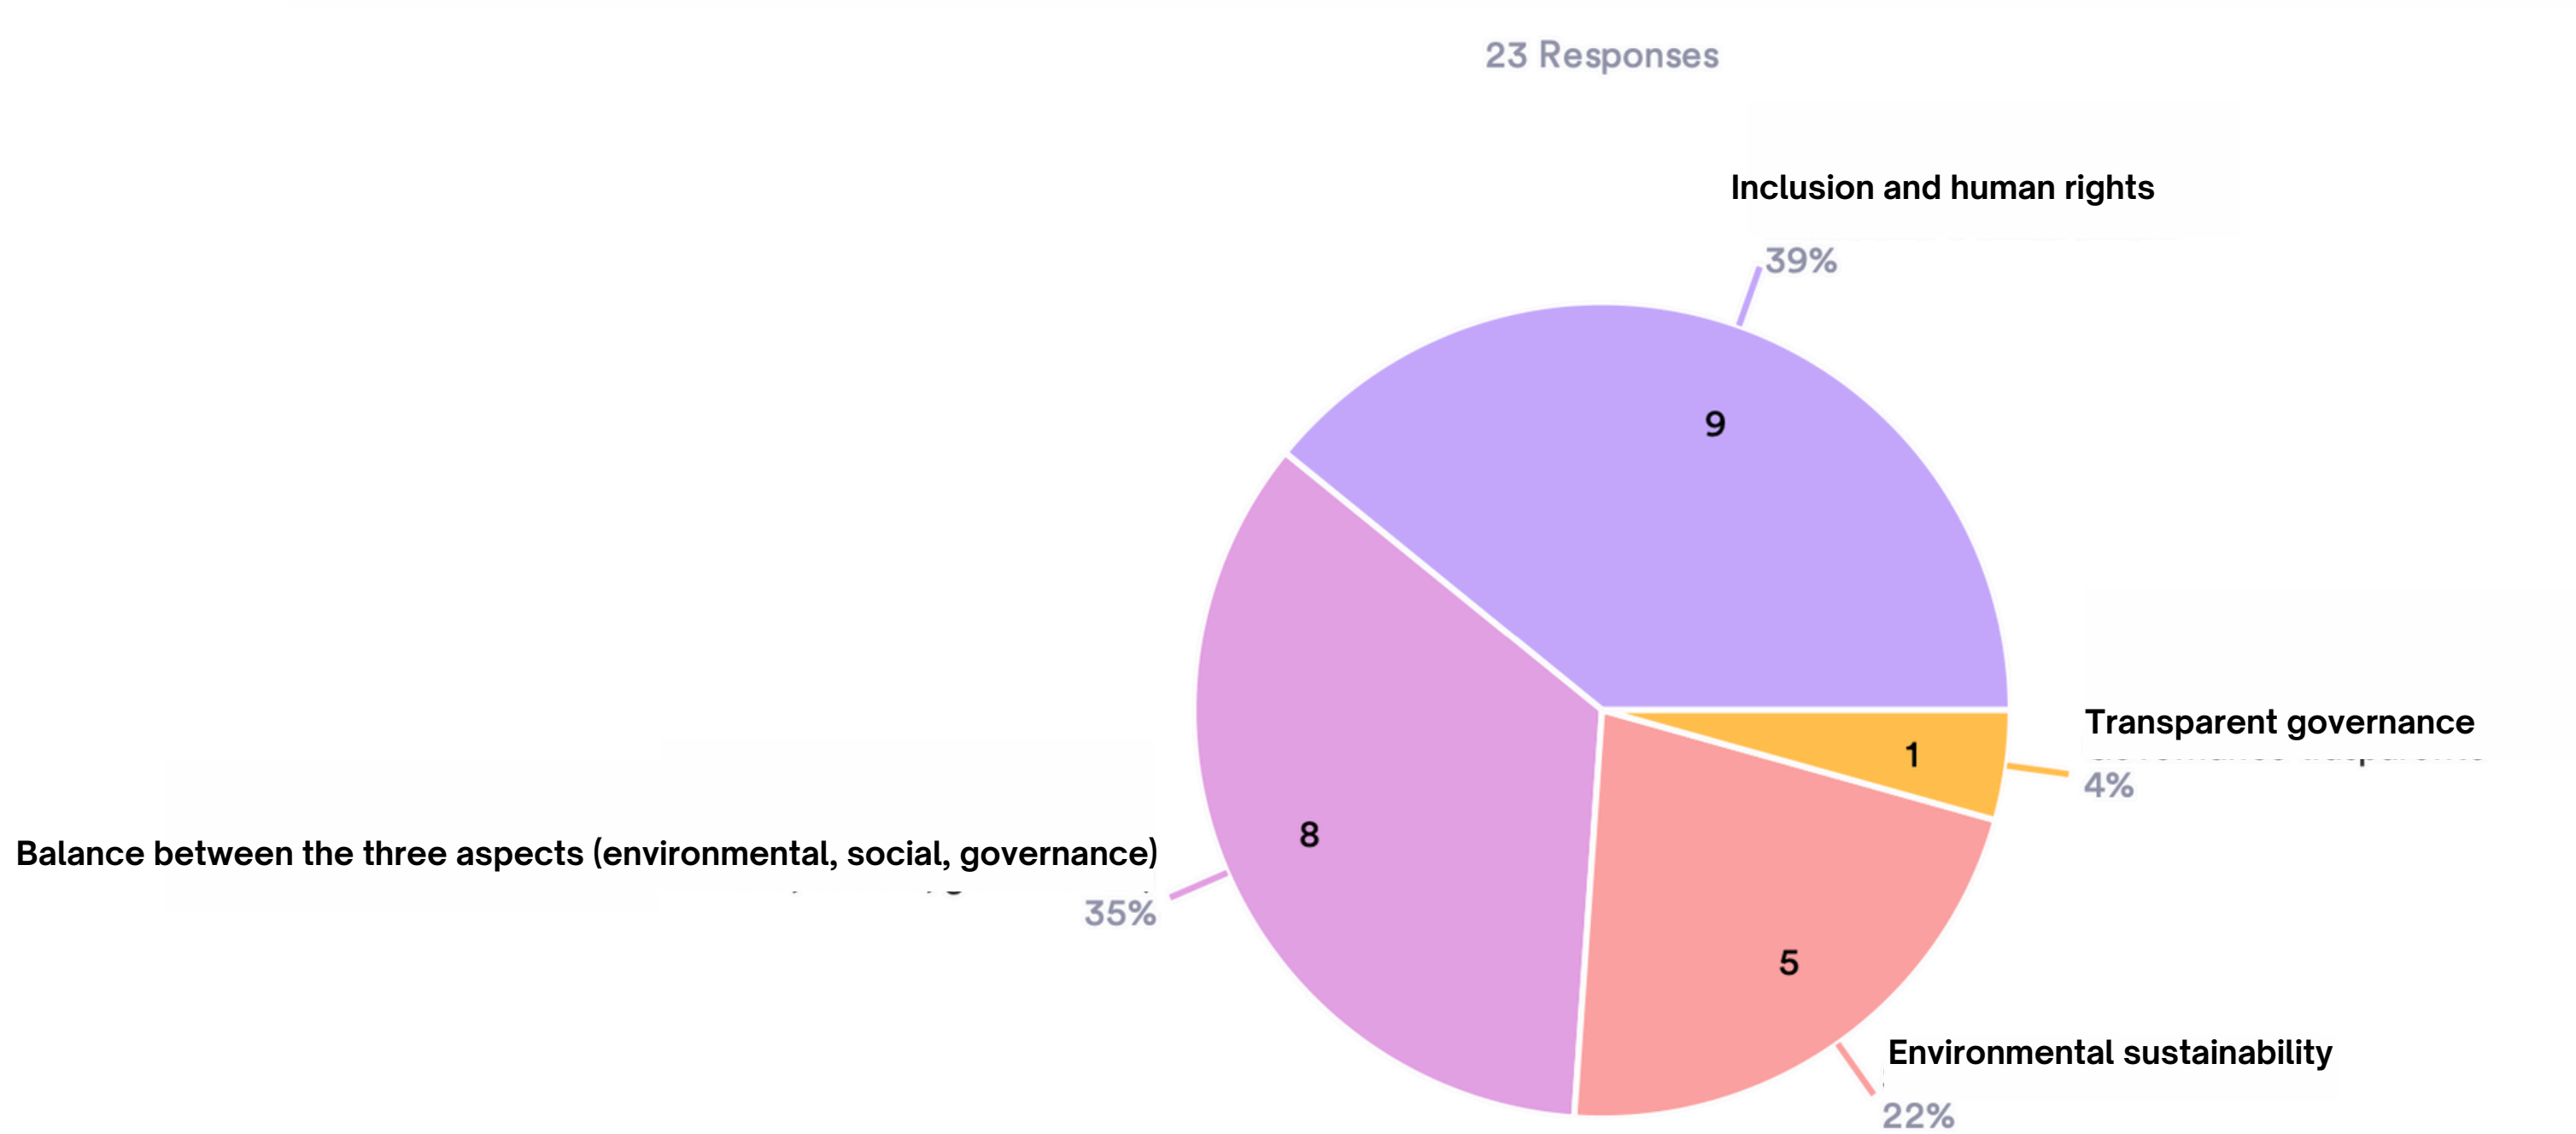

2) Has your organization implemented specific policies or processes to integrate ESG factors into its activities?

23 Responses

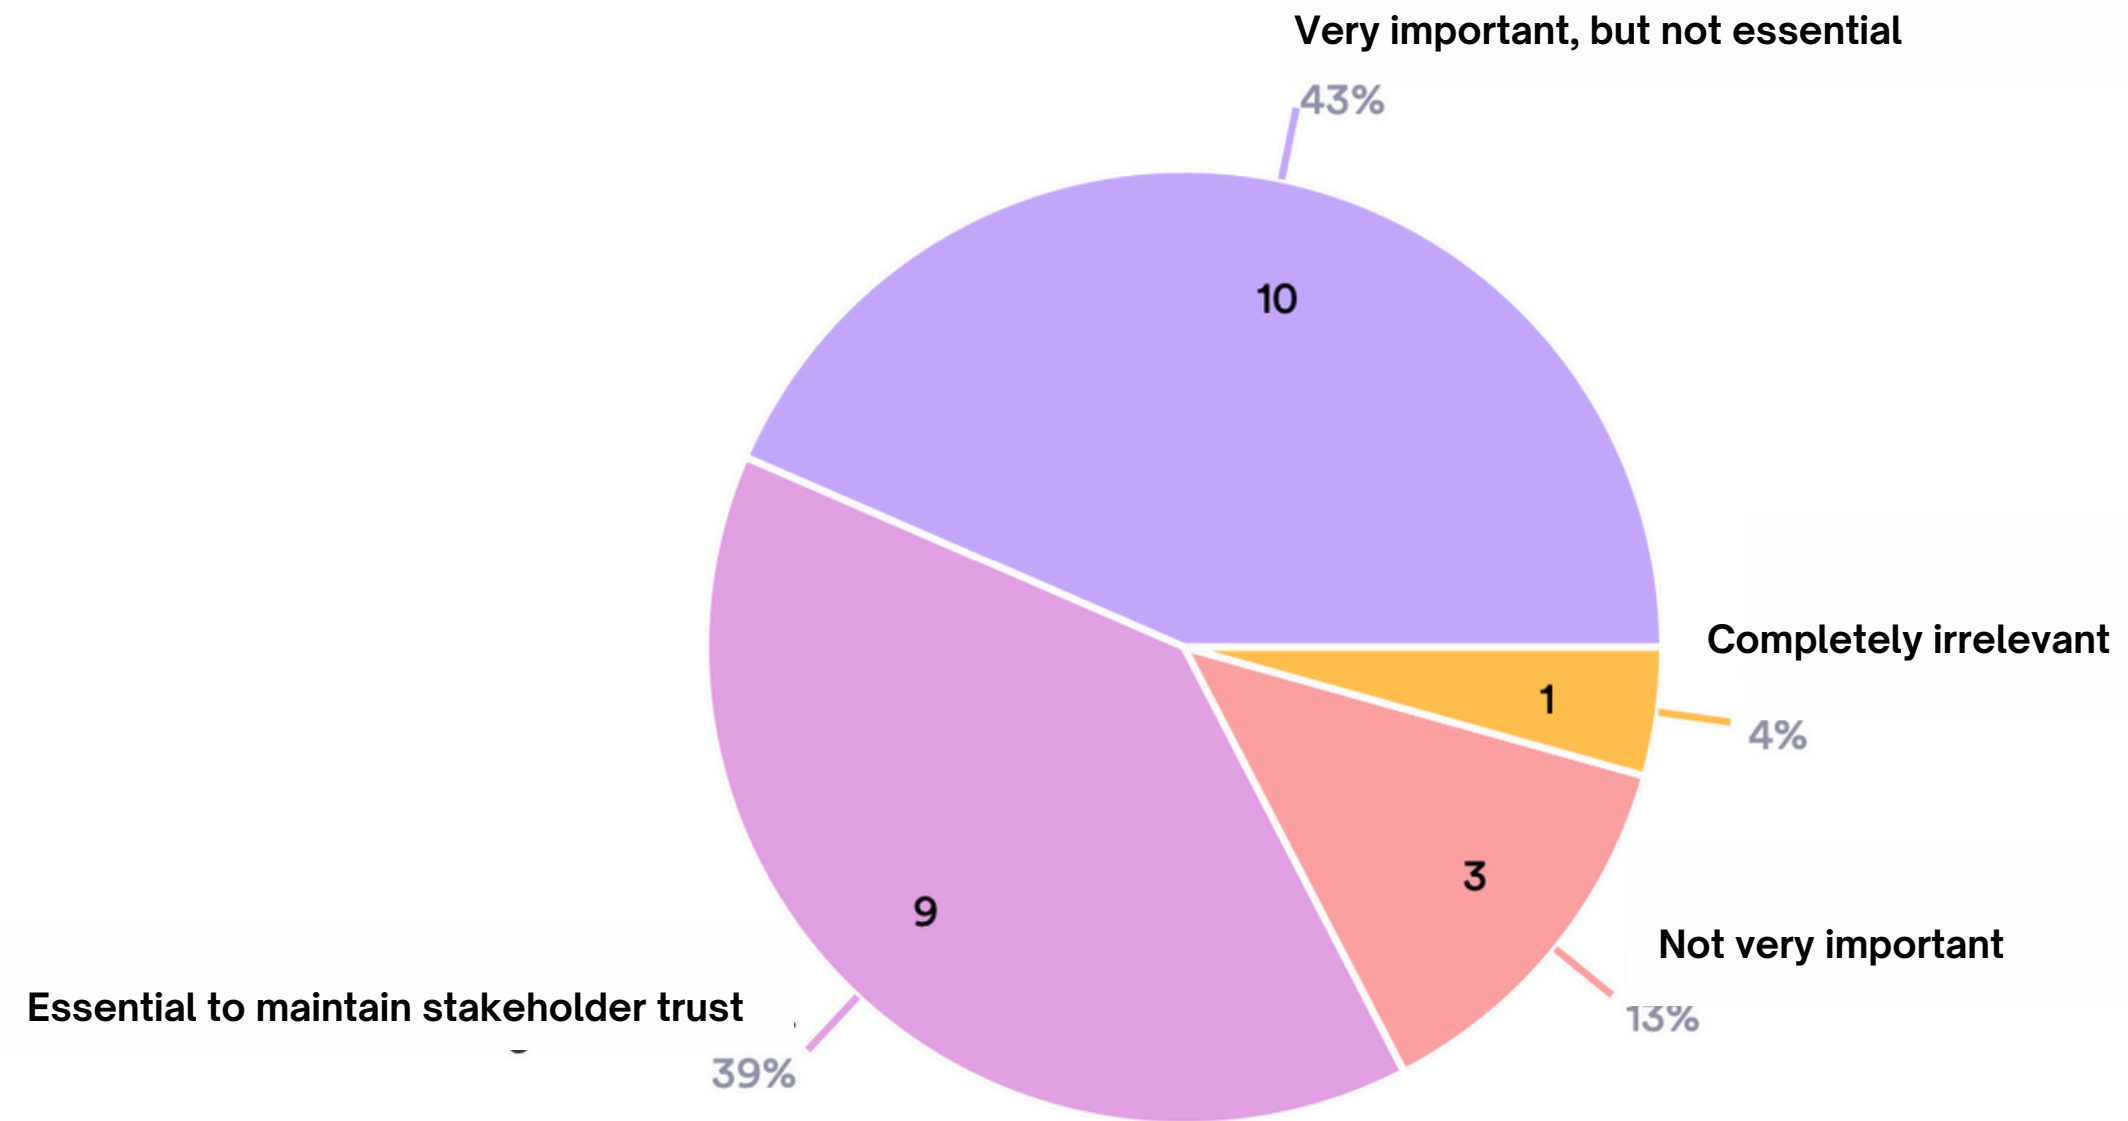

3) Which aspects of ESG factors are a priority for your organization?

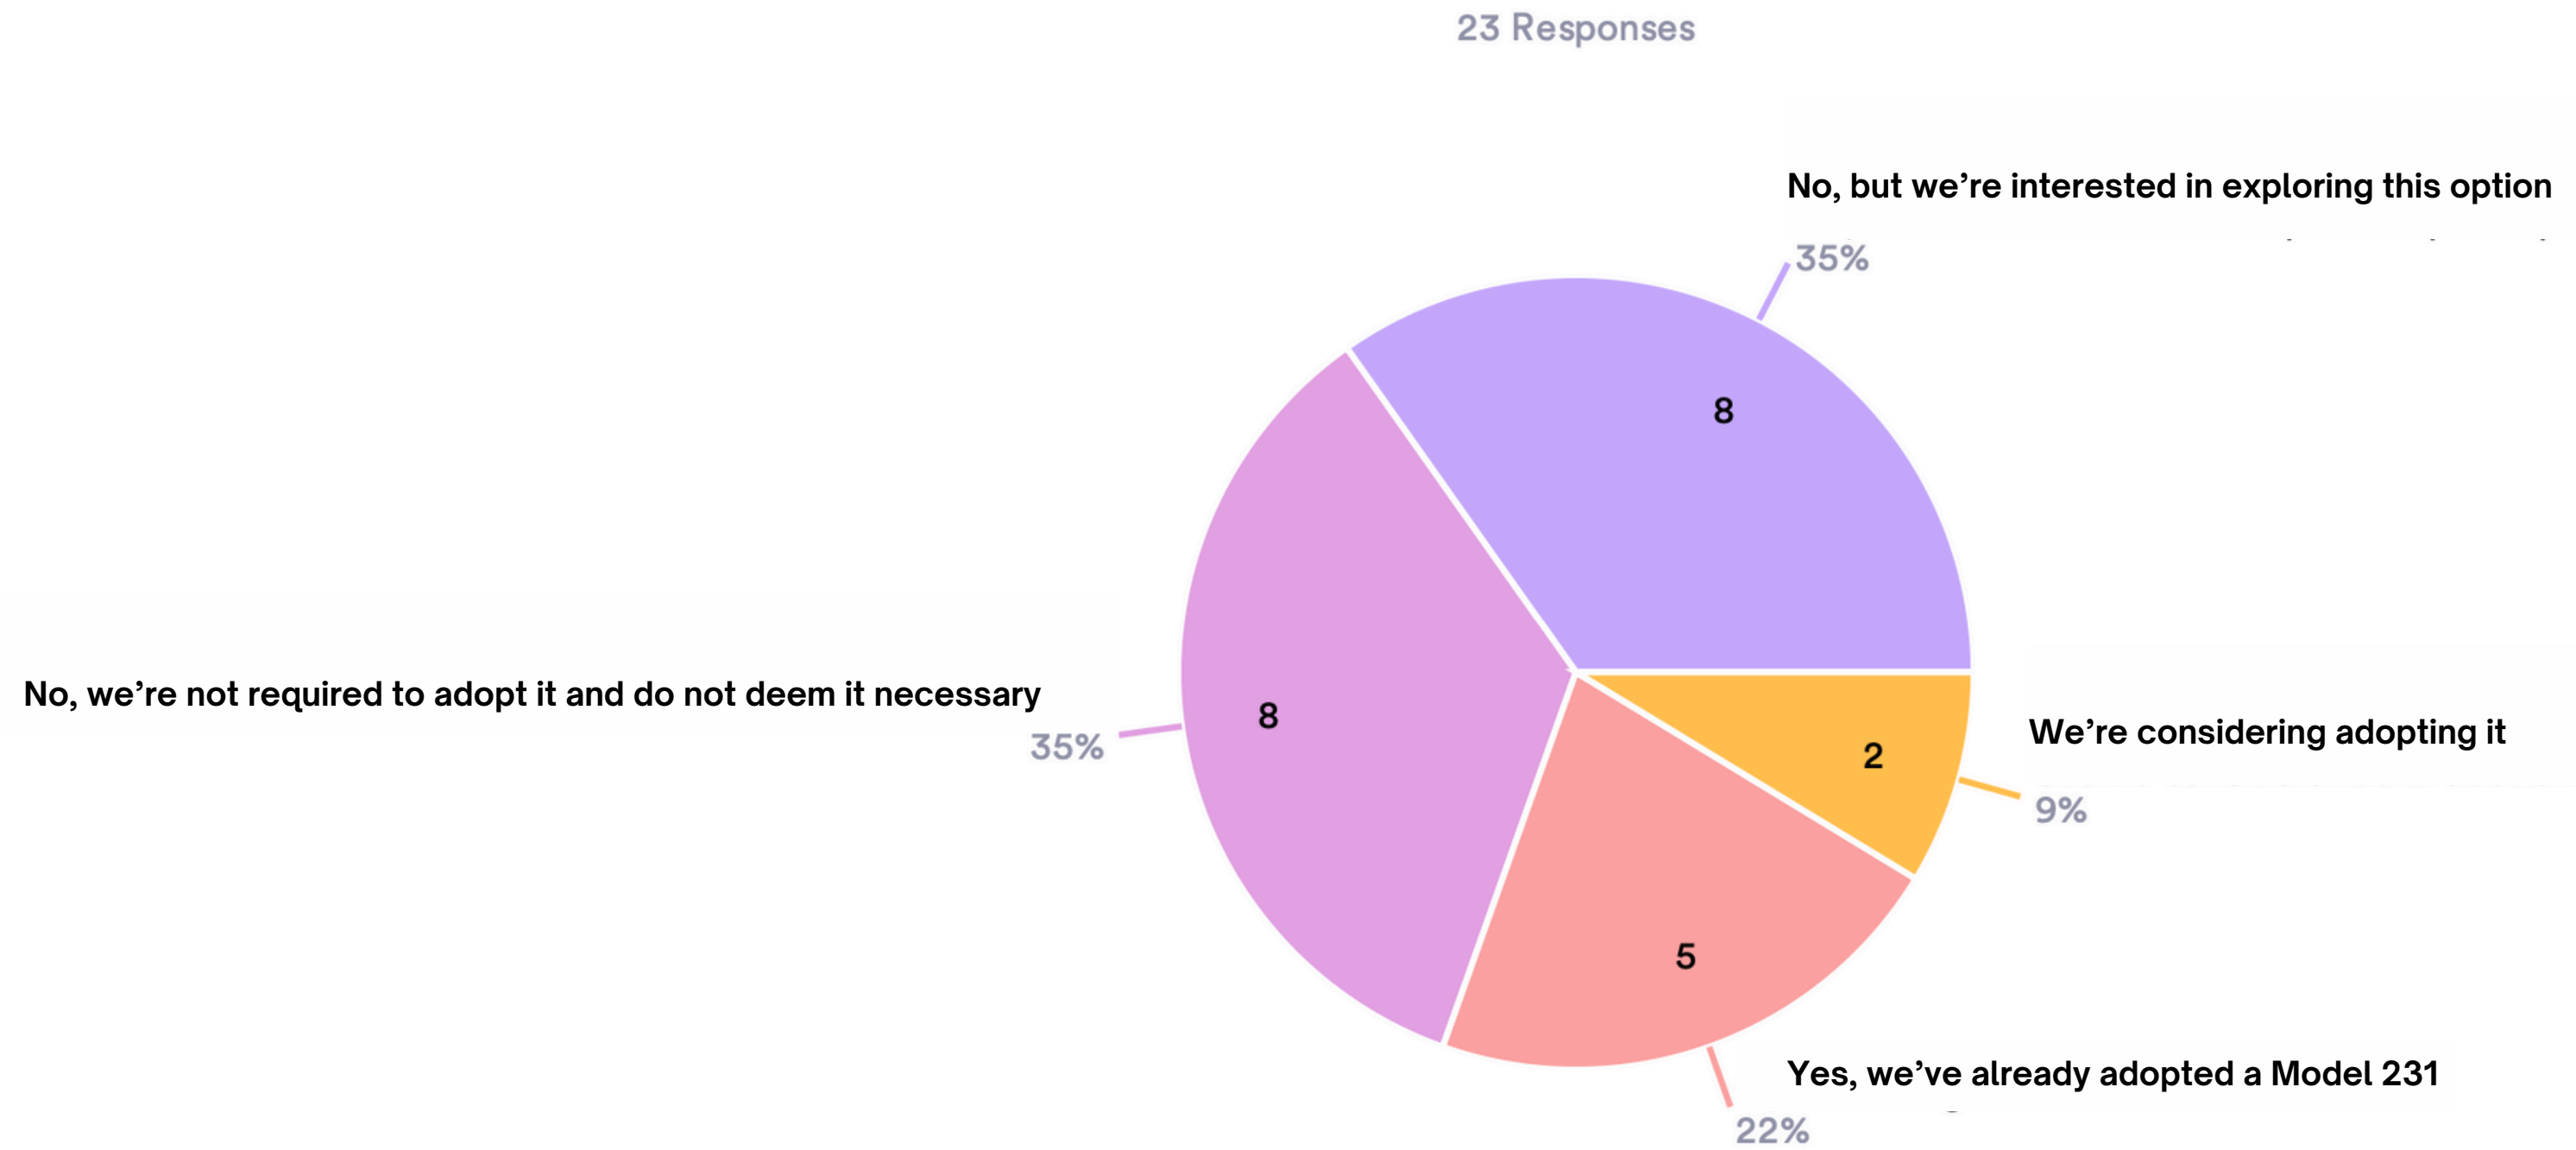

4) How important is transparency in ESG reporting for your organization?

23 Responses

5) Does your organization adopt or consider adopting a Model 231 to enhance governance and compliance?

Thanks

for the attention and to those who answered the survey